LAST ATLANTIC PARK SURF ART MARKET FOR THE SEASON THIS SATURDAY, OCT. 24

Check out collaborative surf art event featuring local and Outer Banks artists

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (Oct. 22, 2026) –
WHO: Atlantic Park and VB Surf Art Expo, a FREE event

WHAT: Atlantic Park Surf Art Market held at the TowneBank Plaza, the last Surf Art Market of the season. “The Surf Art Market has become a wonderful collaboration between Atlantic Park and the Virginia Beach Surf Art Expo, bringing together talented artists and an incredible community audience. We're thankful for the support this season, excited to put a holiday spin on the market later this year and look forward to its return in 2027,” said Tracy Derring, director of events, Atlantic Park.

WHERE: Atlantic Park TowneBank Plaza at 19th St. and Arctic Ave. at the Virginia Beach Oceanfront

WHEN: Join us this Saturday, October 24 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

WHY: We’re chill! The collaborative theme of surfing and surf art is a natural partnership.

HOW: Local and Outer Banks artists offer a surf vibe art scene with several art mediums like painting, jewelry, wood, ceramics, photography, sculpture and mixed media for purchase.

MORE: Visitors can view the surf art of over 40 surf artists available for purchase, while enjoying live music provided by Disco Dunes at this Oceanfront event.

“We're stoked to return to Atlantic Park for our third Surf Art Market! This exciting new venue provides a wonderful opportunity to showcase the creativity and talent of our local and OBX artists. Our goal is to create a vibrant, welcoming atmosphere where visitors can meet the artists, discover unique works of art for purchase, and experience the creative spirit of the surf culture we have in Virginia Beach.”, said show organizer, Jodie Woodward, founder of the Virginia Beach Surf Expo.
